The souvenir programme for the occasion was a well arranged 12 page pamphlet tied with gold cord, and showing cuts of the founder of the society, Rev. Daniel Kelly: the present rector of St. Patrick's church, Rev. Hugh Treanor and of the T. A. B. building.

The society parlors were attractively decorated with palms, ferns and carnations by a committee of St. Anne's T. A. society, consisting of Miss Catherine Donahue, Miss Annie McGuinness, and Miss Mary Skelly.
